> Sixty-nine sacks out and eighty-two in establish a record for the local postoffice that will show what a small force of willing . murder of Zlesche, as the out. cierks can do when they are enthusiastic in the performance of voluntary service.

The parcels post that came in this morning made a pile half way to the high ceiling of the distributing department and caused the courage of the young lady clerks to sink away down to their toenails. Nevertheless, they tackled the stack and, after half an hour, their efforts began to make an impression, and the incoming stuff began to show slight diminution. However, the clerks stuck to the job, and by noon they had cleaned up the contents of the sacks and were handing out packages at the rate of five a minute to eager recipients.

An idea of the enormous business handled in the Tonopah office may be gleaned from the statement that the sale of stamps in small denominations yesterday aggregated $232.80. This did not include any of the big mining companies, who buy envelopes and stamps in large quantities, but the money came from persons sending out Christmas business and the ordinary letter mail.

Train No. 24 from the north, which makes all the connections with the eastern trains at Hazen, was an hour late, owing, it is said, to loss of time taking care of the postoffice business. The quantity of sacks could not be handled in the regular postoffice car, which was not equal to storing such a mass of matter, and onehalf the bulk was taken care of in the baggage car.

Wells Fargo has not gone out of business, as some persons think, but is going ahead doing a limited amount of carrying at the same old stand. This morning the outward bound express occupied two big truck loads, and the receipts were almost equally as

The president met the cabinet today and exchanged Christmas greetings. All southern national banks have applied for membership in the new federal reserve system.

Bristow opened the senate debate with an attack upon Owen. He said he wanted his views placed on the permanent record. He said the agreement placing the secretary of the treasury, secretary of agriculture and the comptroller of the currency on a committee to organize the system was a move to bring the whole system under political control. Bristow declared he believed Owen excluded him from the conference, fearing he would join the democrats against Owens' "pet" measure. Owen replied he had excluded Bristow because the democrats did not want the conference to 'become a debating society.'

Bristow charged that Owen was interested in an Oklahoma bank and, therefore, would profit greatly personally by the currency bill. This Owen denied.

Congress will recess until January 12, 1914, when the currency debate is to be concluded. Congress has been continually in session since April 7.
